JOB POSTING

POSITION TITLE

Outdoor Educator

POSITION SUMMARY

Outdoor Educators at Exploring New Horizons (ENH) work with incredibly diverse groups of students from across northern California. In this role you will build your knowledge of the coast's diverse ecosystems and how to teach students in an accessible and engaging way. You will also work with the ENH staff, highschool and parent cabin leaders, and participating classroom teachers to build a great ENH community for all our students.

ABOUT EXPLORING NEW HORIZONS

Exploring New Horizons engages school groups in outdoor education programs that empower students, build environmental literacy, and strengthen school communities. ENH's experienced naturalists engage students in hands-on learning, taking a whole-child approach focused on social-emotional learning, environmental stewardship, health, and the arts. Founded as a nonprofit in 1979, ENH partners with over 100 schools annually, and in its 45-year history ENH has served more than 225,000 students. Each year, 8,000 Northern California students participate in 3- to 5-day programs at its Pigeon Point and Sempervirens sites.

LOCATIONS

Scotts Valley, California

EMPLOYMENT STATUS & WORK SCHEDULE

This position is hourly, non-exempt and works 32-40 hours per week, 4-5 days per week (Monday–Friday) with occasional overtime. Expected to work 1-2 evening programs per week.

Staff Training begins Monday, August 26. Programs tentatively begin on September 9, 2024 and end on May 30, 2025 (excluding holiday breaks).

WHO YOU ARE

ENH does not expect every applicant to have every skill and qualification listed here. We are committed to the professional development of our employees. A strong candidate who is interested in growing and learning in this role will possess at least 75% of the following qualifications. If this is you, then we strongly encourage you to apply.
